MORE SUPPORT

Mentorship is the norm at TU. Work one on one with engaged faculty and experience tailored learning opportunities. Find your calling and your voice.

MORE AFFORDABLE

We work hard to keep the cost of a TU education as low as possible—and it shows. According to LendEDU, our students have the lowest average student debt after graduation of any school in the University System of Maryland.

FINANCIAL AID & SCHOLARSHIPS

FINANCIAL AID

Financial aid consists of scholarships, need-based grants, loans and student employment. To apply for financial aid, students must fill out the Free Application for Student Aid (FAFSA). The FAFSA deadline for TU is Feb. 1. TU's FAFSA Code is 002099.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Admissions merit-based scholarships are competitive and are awarded based on academic rigor and a holistic review process of your submitted credentials. To be considered, students must complete an admissions application by the Nov. 15 Early Action Deadline.

Search for more than 200 additional scholarships on TU's Scholarship Seeker at towson.edu/scholarships.
