

Learn more about career opportunities at the intersection of technology and heritage studies

Careers in Digital Public Humanities Panel

Wednesday November 13 5:30 pm - 7:30 pm

LA 2110

Speakers include:

- Leslie Eames, Director of Digital Collections and Initiatives, Maryland Center for History and Culture
- Tim Kulp, Chief Innovation Officer, Mind Over Machines
- Sarah Slingluff, Lead Educator, Digital Lab for Islamic Culture and Collections & Walters Museum
- Emiel Brown, Library Associate in Special Collections and University Archives, Cook Library
- Christina Bell, GIS Specialist, Center for GIS, Towson University

Sponsored by the Global Humanities MA program
and the Department of History