Student Government Association Constitution

PREAMBLE

We, the students of Towson University, desiring to preserve within the University an atmosphere of free discussion, inquiry, and self-expression, to ensure the personal freedom and general welfare of the student body, to promote principles of all aspects of diversity, and to continue in our tradition of responsible self-governance, do hereby establish this constitution of the Student Government Association (SGA) of Towson University.

FRANCHISE AND CITIZENSHIP

SECTION ONE- Membership

All fee paying undergraduate students enrolled in Towson University's main campus shall have the right to vote in the Student Government Association Elections and to participate in the Student Government Association, hereinafter referred to as the SGA. This right may not be curtailed or removed. Membership shall be detailed in Article IX.

SECTION TWO- Official Name & Governance

The official name of this government body shall be the Student Government Association of Towson University. Hereafter referred to as the "Towson University Student Government Association" or "Towson SGA." The SGA shall be composed of three branches: legislative, executive, and judicial.

SECTION THREE- Oath, Code of Ethics, and Code of Conduct

All members in the Student Government Association must take the following oath on the day that they are inaugurated or on the day that they assume office:

"I do solemnly affirm that I will faithfully serve the Students of Towson University, execute all of the duties and responsibilities of this position and strive to achieve the high level of expectation that accompanies a position within the Student Government Association of Towson University. I will preserve, protect, and defend the Constitution and all other governing documents of the Student Government Association of Towson University to the best of my ability."

All members in the Student Government Association must sign a Code of Ethics & Code of Conduct upon their assumption of office.

The Attorney General must collect and maintain a signed copy of the Code of Ethics and Code of Conduct within five

(5) business days of inauguration or confirmation.

ARTICLE I

LEGISLATIVE BRANCH

The Student Senate

SECTION ONE- Student Senate

The supreme legislative power for the student body shall be vested in the Student Senate of Towson University. The purpose of the Student Senate is to represent the student body, write proper and necessary legislation, and monitor university policies and/or programming that concerns the undergraduate student body at Towson University.

SECTION TWO- Student Senate Leadership Officers

The presiding officer of the Student Senate shall be the President Pro-Tempore of the Student Government Association. The President Pro-Tempore shall serve as a non-voting ex-officio member of the Senate. The President Pro-Tempore shall have the assistance of the Chair of Senate Government Operations Committee, and the Chair of Senate Appropriations Committee. These three officers shall hereinafter be referred to as Senate Leadership. Senate Leadership shall establish rules of order in which they will delineate their duties and responsibilities in addition to those outlined in the Constitution.

The Government Operations Chair shall preside over the Senate when and if the President Pro-Tempore is unable to do so, and shall assume the duties of the President Pro-Tempore if it becomes vacant and until a new President Pro-Tempore is elected through an internal student senate election. The Vice President will chair until the President Pro-Tempore is initially elected at the annual summer retreat. Then, if the President Pro-Tempore is vacant after that election, the Government Operations Chair will take on those duties and responsibilities. The President Pro-Tempore shall preside over the Rules Committee. The Chair of Government Operations shall preside over the standing Government Operations Committee, and the Chair of Appropriations shall preside over the standing Appropriations Committee.

SECTION THREE- President-Pro Tempore Duties & Responsibilities

The SGA President Pro-Tempore Shall:

- A. Be responsible for overseeing the legislative branch.
- B. Serve as the presiding officer and chairperson over any General Assembly meetings;
- C. Serve as a non-voting-member of the Student Senate and shall only vote in the event of a tie among the Senate during General Assembly meetings;
- D. Monitor the activities and initiatives of the Student Senate to make sure that it is fulfilling its responsibilities;

- E. Serve as the Chair of the Rules Committee;
- F. Serve as a member of the Senate Selection Committee;
- G. Serve as a member of the Grant Review Committee;
- H. Call Special Session meetings of the Senate with an advanced notice of two (2) business days, unless otherwise approved by Senate Leadership by a simple majority vote;
- I. Call special meetings with the three members of Senate Leadership as deemed necessary with an advanced notice of two (2) business days;
- J. Disperse certain responsibilities upon the three members of Senate Leadership as needed not to exceed the five additional office hours that come with a Senate Leadership position
- K. Publicly announce any Presidential vetoes at the subsequent General Assembly meeting after a veto has been made;

SECTION FOUR– Student Senate Composition

The Student Senate shall be composed of twenty-five (25) total senators. The student body of Towson University main campus will elect eighteen Senators at large, yearly. Four (4) Senators will be appointed from the undergraduate freshman class, and the remaining three (3) Senators shall be appointed transfer students. The seven (7) appointed Senators are to be interviewed and appointed by the Senate Selection Committee and appointed by the SGA Vice President.

The seven appointed Senators are to be confirmed by two-thirds [2/3] majority of the Student Senate. If a two-thirds majority approves the appointed senator(s), they must immediately swear oath, sign the Code of Ethics, Code of Conduct, and assume office.

SECTION FIVE– Student Senate Committees

The twenty-five (25) members of the student body Senate will be divided into two standing committees: the Appropriations Committee and the Government Operations Committee.

Thirteen (13) Senators will be appointed to the Appropriations Committee and twelve (12) Senators will be appointed to the Government Operations Committee.

There shall be a Rules Committee comprised of three (3) Senators, the President Pro Tempore, the Chair of the Government Operations Committee, and the Chair of the Appropriations Committee. The President Pro Tempore shall serve as the Chair of the Rules Committee and reserves the right to appoint the three (3) Senators that are to serve on the committee.

There shall be a Food Insecurity Committee comprised of seven (7) Senators, and be chaired by the Food Insecurity Chair, who will be appointed by the President Pro-Tempore with recommendations from the SGA Vice President. The committee will be comprised of senators whose initiatives tie directly with food insecurity. This committee will coordinate with the Food Recovery Network at Towson University to arrange and be responsible for food collection at various dining halls on Towson University's campus.

There shall be a Senate Selection Committee chaired by the Vice President. This committee shall be comprised of Senate Leadership and the 2 vice-chairs. The President Pro-Tempore can appoint anyone to this committee as they see fit. The purpose of this committee is to interview Senate applicants as vacancies arise.

There shall be a SGA Grant Committee chaired by the Attorney General. This committee shall be comprised of the SGA Treasurer, the Director of Student Organizations along with Senate Leadership. The purpose of this committee is to allocate funding to students and student organizations, outside of the budgeting process and the supplemental funding request. This committee shall abide by its own specific rules and procedures outlined in the Constitutional Bylaws.

Members of the Student Senate may form special Ad Hoc Committees or Task Forces in the event that a matter of concern is not within the jurisdiction of the Standing Committees. Each Ad Hoc Committee shall complete a bi-weekly report, submit it to the Vice President, and deliver an oral report at pre-meetings. However, these committees and/or task forces are permitted to establish their own rules and procedures, as they deem necessary.

Each Standing Committee must maintain its specific purpose and responsibilities in the Constitutional Bylaws. All committees and/or task forces must maintain meeting minutes and send them to all members and the Vice President within two (2) business days of meeting and give a report at the subsequent General Assembly.

SECTION SIX – Student Senate Powers & Responsibilities

ARTICLE III

JUDICIAL BRANCH

SECTION ONE- Judicial Branch Authority

The authority of the Judicial Branch of the Student Government Association shall be vested in the Judicial Board. The Judicial Board will be the main appellate body utilized in cases of disagreement with mandates from the Executive Branch and the Student Senate. Any Towson University main campus student may appeal an affirmation of the Student Senate if they feel that the Student Senate unjustly rendered a decision on a piece of legislation.

SECTION TWO- Judicial Branch Composition

The Judicial Board shall be composed of a Chief Justice, a Deputy Chief Justice, and three Associate Justices. Members of the Judicial Board are to be elected at large by the student body of Towson

University.

SECTION THREE- Chief Justice Selection & Duties

The Chief Justice shall be appointed by the SGA President on or before September 30th of a regular academic calendar. The Student Senate must confirm the appointed Chief Justice by a two-thirds [2/3] majority vote.

The Chief Justice shall appoint a Deputy Chief Justice within two weeks of assuming office.

The Chief Justice shall decide on times to convene as an appeal comes to the Judicial Board, take minutes of the meetings, write opinions of the court and represent the Judicial Board at events as deemed by the SGA President. The Attorney General and Chief Justice reserves the right to outline expectations for the Judicial Board. If the Chief Justice is not present, the powers will fall on the Deputy Chief Justice.

SECTION FOUR- Judicial Branch Powers & Responsibilities

- K. Investigate all instances of noncompliance with policies set forth by the constitution
- L. Have one representative present on committees dealing with the rights of students as deemed necessary by the SGA President;
- M. Sign a Confidentiality Agreement that will be presented and collected by the Chief Justice and given to the SGA Attorney General and SGA Advisor.

SECTION FIVE- Office of the Solicitor General

The Office of the Solicitor General shall serve as a liaison to the student body, as well as the administration, whilst advocating for continued equity and representation for the undergraduate student population. By providing information on university policies and processes, the office aims to empower the campus community through commitment, service, and leadership.

The Office of the Solicitor General shall consist of the Solicitor General, Deputy Solicitor General, departmental members, and sub-departments. The Solicitor General reserves the right to appoint a Deputy Solicitor General.

The SGA Solicitor General shall:

- B. Be appointed by the President on or before September 30th of a regular academic year;
- C. Be confirmed by two-thirds [2/3] majority of the Student Senate;
- D. Appoint a Deputy Solicitor General and student advocates;
- E. Consult with students and student organizations when they have allegedly violated student organization policies;
- F. Advise students that have a matter of concern with University Policy or procedures;
- G. Assist the Student Senate with creating resolutions that comply with University Policy;
- H. Review concerns and/or questions about matters that are not explicitly stated in the constitution and respond to students, student organizations, or SGA members that may have raised the concern and/or question;
- I. Maintain extensive knowledge on University policies;
- J. Assist the Attorney General in rewriting policies that affect the students and/or student organizations;
- K. Lead initiatives that reform University policies to be more empowering to the student body;
- L. Attend meetings with faculty, staff, and/or administrators as deemed necessary by the President of the SGA and report such meetings to the Student Senate.
- M. Maintain the Student Advocacy Center and oversee the tasks of the four (4) Student Advocates;
- N. Advocate for all students regardless of any existing relationship between the Solicitor General and any individual or group.

SECTION SIX- Judicial Branch Appeals Process

If the Judicial Board receives notification from the Chief Justice of an appeal that merits consideration, the Judicial Board shall convene upon its receipt. This is to afford the complainant or the appealing body a speedy and fair decision. At this meeting, the Judicial Board shall determine whether or not to overturn the decision of SGA.

If the Judicial Board chooses to overturn the decision made by the SGA the decision will henceforth be the final decision. If someone chooses to challenge the final decision of the SGA they must challenge it with a new piece of legislation or appeal to the Department of Student Activities.

SECTION SEVEN- Term Conditions of the Judicial Branch

Each Justice shall serve a one-year term, based on the regular academic calendar, beginning at high noon the Monday immediately after inauguration. During their term in office, each Justice shall have one vote.

All members of the Judicial Branch must be enrolled as a full time degree seeking, fee-paying undergraduate students at Towson University main campus, and have a minimum of a 2.5 cumulative GPA at the time of their election or appointment. All members must remain enrolled as full time degree seeking, fee-paying undergraduate students in the university and maintain good academic standing for the duration of their term in office.

The term of the Judicial Board shall end at high noon on the first Monday in May after inauguration. The terms of their successors shall begin immediately after the inauguration.

There is no limit to the number of terms that can be served in the position of Justice. No member of the Judicial Branch may simultaneously be a member of the Legislative Branch or Executive Branch.

SECTION EIGHT- Judicial Branch Vacancies

A vacancy in the Judicial Board resulting from the resignation or removal of an elected or appointed Justice after May 31st shall be filled through an application process. Any full-time degree seeking, fee-paying undergraduate student at Towson University main campus may apply for the position. There shall be a Justice Selection Committee headed by the Attorney General and include the Chief Justice and other designees. The Justice Selection Committee shall interview all candidates. The committee will then make a recommendation to the SGA President. The SGA President will appoint the nominee(s) in order for the Student Senate to vote on the confirmation of the appointment.

A two-thirds [2/3] majority vote of the Student Senate must confirm the appointment. Should the Senate approve the nominee(s) to the Judicial Board, they must immediately swear oath, sign the Code of Ethics, Code of Conduct, and assume office.

SECTION NINE- Resignation from the Judicial Branch

Those who wish to resign from the Judicial Branch must give a formal written Notice of Resignation to the Chief Justice and Attorney General with an effective date.

In addition, they must also announce their resignation to the Student Senate at the subsequent General Assembly meeting or Special Senate Session upon their submission of the Notice of Resignation.

Should they choose not to announce their resignation or be unable to attend the subsequent General

Assembly meeting, the Chief Justice or Attorney General will announce the resignation of the Judicial Branch member to the Student Senate at the subsequent General Assembly meeting or Special Senate Session.

ARTICLE IV LINES OF SUCCESSION

SECTION ONE- Succession in the Executive Board

The Lines of Succession of Executive Board positions are as follows:

- A. President- If the SGA President is removed from office or leaves office for any reason, the SGA Vice President shall assume all duties and responsibilities of the SGA President .
- B. Vice President- If the SGA Vice President is removed from office or leaves office for any reason, the President Pro Tempore shall act in their place until the SGA President appoints a new SGA Vice President .
- C. Treasurer- If the SGA Treasurer is removed from office or leaves office for any reason, the Chair of the Appropriations Committee shall act in their place until the SGA President appoints a new SGA Treasurer.
- D. Attorney General- If the SGA Attorney General is removed from office or leaves office for any reason, the Chair of the Government Operations Committee shall act in their place until the SGA President appoints a new SGA Attorney General.
- E. Chief of Staff- If the SGA Chief of Staff is removed from office or leaves office for any reason, the SGA President shall appoint an interim Chief of Staff until a new Chief of Staff is appointed.

SECTION TWO- Succession in the Office of the Solicitor General

If the SGA Solicitor General is removed from office or leaves office for any reason, the Deputy Solicitor General shall act in their place until the SGA President replaces them. A new Deputy Solicitor General must be appointed through an application process.

SECTION THREE- Succession in the Student Senate Leadership

If the Government Operations Chair or Appropriations chair is removed from office or leaves office for any reason, the Vice Chairs shall act in their place until a new chair will be elected through an internal election in the student senate within one week of the vacancy.

If the President Pro Tempore is removed from office or leaves office for any reason, the Government Operations Chair shall act in their place until a new President Pro-Tempore is elected through an internal election.

SECTION FOUR- Succession in the Judicial Branch

If the Chief Justice is removed from office or leaves office for any reason, the Deputy Chief Justice shall assume all duties and responsibilities until a new Chief Justice is appointed by the SGA President. A new Deputy Chief Justice must be appointed within two (2) weeks of the vacancy by the newly appointed Chief Justice.

ARTICLE V

EXECUTIVE ORGANIZATIONS

SECTION ONE- Structure and Affiliation

Executive Organizations shall:

1. Function as sub-organizations operating out of the SGA;
2. Maintain their own constitutions that will be approved or denied by a two-thirds [2/3] majority vote of the Student Senate;
3. Report to the SGA President;

SECTION TWO- The Freshman Council

The Freshman Council shall serve to empower first year students and encourage them to be more involved with the Student Government Association.

The Freshman Council shall:

- A. Consist of twenty (20) freshman students;
- B. Establish its own rules of governance and meeting times;
- C. Coordinate events that promote the involvement of first year students;

- D. Shall construct a budget from money allocated in the SGA Operating Budget by the SGA Treasurer and SGA President.

ARTICLE VI

SPONSORED ORGANIZATIONS

SECTION ONE- Structure and Affiliation

1. Sponsored Organizations are special interest, student-run organizations, whose purpose and function operates independently from the Financial Policy for Student Organizations. The unique function and broad impact of these organizations on the campus community inherently requires line-items from the SGA Operational Budget.
2. Sponsored Organizations will maintain their own Constitutions and Bylaws, subject to the approval or denial of the Student Senate by two-thirds [2/3] majority.

SECTION TWO- Budgeting Process

1. After inauguration, the SGA Treasurer will contact the Sponsored Organization's President and Treasurer regarding gaining access to request for funding.
2. Sponsored Organizations will apply for funds at the end of the semester for the following fiscal year.
3. The SGA Treasurer will review each request for funding and allocate funds accordingly.
4. Sponsored Organization will designate one member to attend the SGA Summer Retreat and present a detailed presentation of their request to the entire SGA.
5. The Student Senate will approve or deny the allocation of funds in the vote for the fiscal year Operating Budget.

ARTICLE VII

IMPEACHMENT

SECTION ONE- Scope of Punitive Powers

All members of the Student Government Association are subject to the provisions outlined by the Student Government Association's Constitution, Bylaws, and Ethics and Standards Policy. However, impeachment-voting power rests solely with the Student Senate and shall extend to all elected officials of the Student Government Association. No resolution for impeachment shall be subject to the veto of the Student Government Association's President.

SECTION TWO- Charges for Impeachment

Any elected or appointed official of the Student Government Association may be impeached based on the following charges, explicitly defined by this article:

- A. Severe breaches of university standards and/or provisions.
- B. Negligence of Duty in which the official is in gross dereliction of executive, legislative, or judicial duty, or willfully failed to execute a specific duty to the best of their ability. The scope of Negligence of Duty shall be outlined by the roles and duties defined in the Student Government Association Constitution, Bylaws, and Ethics and Standards Policy.
- C. Breach of Ethical Duty in which the official is responsible for violating the Student Government Association Ethics and Standards Policy.
- D. Abuse of Power in which the official has inconsistently used their official power in an unfair manner, not outlined by the Student Government Association Constitution and/or Bylaws. The abuse of power may also apply in which the official has used their power to discriminate based on race, ethnicity, sex, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, socioeconomic status etc.

SECTION THREE- Formal Charges

All formal charges against an elected official shall be introduced in the Student Senate in the form of a Special Resolution containing a Bill of Charges in a context appropriate to the officials duties and responsibilities, including the call for their impeachment.

SECTION FOUR- Bill of Charges

A Bill of Charges shall be a resolving clause listing each charge alleged against an official and the specifications. Any Bill of Charges lacking clearly defined charges and sustainable specifications shall be out of order. Each Bill of Charges shall include a brief for the members of the Student Senate. The Student Senate shall utilize the briefs as a synopsis of the charges brought against the accused.

SECTION FIVE- Introduction of Formal Charges

All Special Senate Resolutions shall be filed within the bounds of Senate Rule with either:

- A. The sponsorship and signatures of a minimum of three (3) Senators;
- B. A petition of five hundred (500)- full time Towson University main campus fee paying undergraduate students;
- C. The sponsorship of the Vice President.

SECTION SIX- Review of Charges

The Chief Justice shall convene a special meeting of the Judicial Board in order to review the validity of the impeachment charge. The committee shall deal with the charges as follows: the lead sponsor shall have five minutes to present their case, followed by a period of questioning. Then, the accused officer(s) shall have the same amount of time for rebuttal, followed again by a period of questioning. A period of debate will then be entered. After debate, a roll-call vote shall be taken. A majority vote of the committee shall sustain the charge.

The Chief Justice shall report the rendered decision of the Judicial Board during the subsequent General Assembly or Special Senate Session. Should the Chief Justice not be in attendance, the Deputy Chief Justice shall report the rendered decision.

Should a member of the Judicial Board be impeached, the accused member must recuse themselves from the review of charges. Should the Chief Justice be impeached, then the Deputy Chief Justice shall chair the special meeting.

SECTION SEVEN- Notification of Charges

Once the Special Resolution and Bill of Charges have been filed, the Chief Justice shall notify the accused official by a written statement, which shall include the resolution, by hand delivery within forty-eight (48) business hours. The Vice President shall also make the Special Resolution and Bill of Charges available to all Student Government Association officials within twenty-four (24) business hours after hand delivering the documents to the accused official.

SECTION EIGHT- Impeachment Trial

- A. The trial of an impeached Student Government elected official shall occur no more than ten business days from the delivery date of the Special Resolution. The Vice President shall find a day best fit for the impeached official to attend. Should an impeached official fail to attend, the trial shall be conducted in absentia.
- B. Structure of Trial
  1. Upon filing of the Special Resolution the Senate must convene at a time separate from the normal legislative session, outlined in the Student Government Association Bylaws. This session shall be a closed session and must follow regular Senate Robert Rules of Order.
  2. The President Pro-Tempore must preside over the impeachment trial. However, in the event the President Pro-Tempore is unavailable or charges have been brought against them, the Chief Justice will then preside over the trial.
  3. The Office of the Solicitor General shall serve as the representative on behalf of the accused unless the Solicitor General decides to recuse themselves. The Solicitor General reserves the right to recuse themselves should they decide that the accused has committed a violation that they believe has inherently affected SGA beyond their ethical duty. If the Solicitor General recuses themselves then the Deputy Solicitor General shall serve in their place. The Deputy Solicitor General reserves the full right to recuse themselves. If both individuals decide to recuse themselves, the accused may ask any individual to represent them. Once the accused member discloses any news of the impeachment to the Solicitor General, the Solicitor

General reserves full rights on maintaining confidentiality on such disclosure. The accused reserves the right to deny representation.

- C. No more than two signatories of the Special Resolution, the Vice President, or two signatories of the petition may formally present the presentation of the Special Resolution to the Student Senate, including evidence and witness testimony.
- D. The accused official shall then respond to the charges, cross examine all accusers, and call witnesses on their own behalf;
- E. The Student Senate as a whole may question the accused or any witnesses that may be summoned.
- F. Senate Debate
  - 1. Following the hearing of evidence, the accused shall be asked to leave the room and the Senate shall enter into deliberation;
  - 2. Senators shall have unlimited debating privileges and may not be censored during deliberations according to Robert's Rules of Order as long as deliberation remain relevant to the current impeachment.
- G. Voting shall be done by confidential ballot;
- H. When voting is completed, the meeting shall be opened and the President Pro-Tempore or Chief Justice, depending on who is chairing the session, shall immediately announce the vote before the Senate.
- I. An impeached elected official shall only be convicted by a two-thirds [2/3] majority of the Student Senate;
- J. Removal from Office shall be invoked by conviction in an impeachment trial. No removal from office shall carry with it a ban on future service.

Except as provided elsewhere in these statutes for discipline within agencies, the provisions of this article shall exclusively contain processes for the termination of any Student Government Elected Office.

ARTICLE VIII

CONSTITUTIONAL BYLAWS

The Constitutional Bylaws shall be a supplemental document that specifies duties and responsibilities of members within the Student Government Association. The Bylaws shall be confirmed by a two-thirds [2/3] majority of the Senate.

ARTICLE IX

MEMBERSHIP RIGHTS

SECTION ONE- Right to Participate

All full time, degree seeking, fee-paying Towson University main campus undergraduate students and/or student organizations shall have the right to vote in all campus-wide Student Government Association elections and to run or apply for any position and/or office within the SGA.

SECTION TWO- Right to Petition

All full time fee paying Towson University main campus undergraduate students and/or student organizations shall have the right to initiate and sign petitions requesting that the SGA take any or all of the following actions:

1. Impeach any of its officers (with a minimum of five hundred (500) signatures);
2. Formally consider any legislation brought forth to the Student Senate (with a minimum of fifty (50) signatures).
3. Formally consider bringing a new piece of legislation with a particular purpose stated in the petition to the Student Senate (with a minimum of fifty (50) signatures).

The SGA shall consider such petitions as long as they do not violate any SGA documents and are submitted during a regular academic semester. If a petition is submitted two (2) weeks before a campus-wide SGA election, it will not be taken into consideration.

SECTION THREE- Right to Judicial & Ethical Process

All full time fee paying Towson University main campus undergraduate students and/or student organizations shall have the right to submit complaints before the Judicial Board.

All full time fee paying Towson University main campus undergraduate students and/or student organizations shall have the right to submit an Accountability Review Request against an SGA member that violates any of the SGA governing documents.

SECTION FOUR- Right Against Discrimination

All Towson University undergraduate students and/or student organizations shall not be excluded from any SGA forum or activity and/or be granted or denied any benefit on account of race, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, national origin, disability, religion, socioeconomic status or political affiliation.

ARTICLE X
ELECTION PROCEEDINGS

SECTION ONE- The Election Policy

An Election Policy Review Committee composed of two (2) non-returning SGA members and the Coordinator of Student Organizations must review the current Election Policy yearly. They must then submit the proposed policy to the Student Senate. The Student Senate shall confirm by a two-thirds [2/3] majority or deny the proposed policy.

Changes to the Election Policy shall be made as deemed necessary by the Coordinator of Student Organizations.

SECTION TWO- Logistics

The time, manner, and place of the campus-wide SGA elections shall be decided on and maintained by the Undergraduate Election Commission.

ARTICLE XI
RATIFICATION & AMENDMENTS TO THE STUDENT GOVERNMENT
ASSOCIATION CONSTITUTION

All amendments to the Towson University SGA Constitution shall require:

1. A two-thirds [2/3] majority vote of the Student Senate;
2. Administrative review by the Associate Vice President for Student Affairs, Campus Life, the Vice President for Student Affairs, and/or the SGA Staff Advisor;
3. An approval by at least one thousand (1,000) full time degree seeking, fee-paying undergraduate Towson University main campus students.
